rapes is more involved or focused more on making political statements and (playing a) blame game."

Haryana recently has seen several cases against women with the most recent being gang rapes of two minor Dalit girls.

A delegation of senior leaders including former Chief Minister Bhupinder Singh Hooda had also met the State Governor to seek instant action against the culprits, and also demanded that instead of one time compensation, the Haryana Government should give a permanent Government job to one of the victim's family.

"We visited the very poor family in Kurukshetra.....the father and the mother of the young victim who was kidnapped and brutally raped and left to die. She was a young mind and just scored 95 per cent in her school and her parents had a dream that she will go on to become a professional and strengthen the family. Today if a girl of 15 is raped and killed, can any parent be compensated with
